Deepest sympathies are extended to AAD member Denise Hainault whose beloved partner, Gérard Bourgeault passed away on December 28, 2025.

Condolences were sent to Denise on behalf of the AAD; however, you may wish to express your sympathies to Denise personally.

FEATURED ARTIST: MARK LIAM SMITH

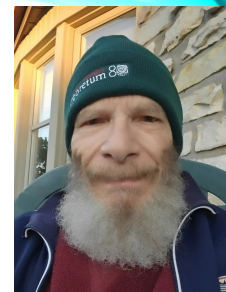

Mark Liam Smith is a Toronto-based oil painter known for his vibrant, hyper-saturated palette and his unique approach to realism, shaped in part by his colour-blindness—a trait he embraces as a strength in his work. His art has been exhibited internationally in cities including Montreal, Toronto, London, New York, and at major art fairs such as SCOPE Basel, Art Seattle, Art Toronto, and Papier in Montreal. [markliamsmith.com]

Dedicated to art education, Mark also teaches millions of aspiring artists online. His popular YouTube channel, Mark Liam Smith, offers beginner-friendly drawing and painting tutorials, color techniques, and step-by-step lessons. With over 600K subscribers and hundreds of videos, it is an excellent resource for artists of all levels. [youtube.com]

AAD MINI-EXHIBITIONS

As a member of the AAD you have some opportunities to show your work. Every artist is unique, and we want to celebrate you wherever you are in your art journey.

Bobby will happily guide you through the process.

Please email or telephone for more information at –
bobbinett@gmail.com | 514-249-5456

You can review past palettes to see previous exhibitors.

#1 Art at the Dollard Library!

Members of the AAD are invited to display their artwork on our designated library wall.

Every two months, one artist gets the space. No jury, no pressure – if you want to show your work, just reach out to Bobby.

You'll need 5–10 finished pieces (large or small), framed or with painted canvas edges, all with wire hangers. A short bio and a brief note about your artwork are also requested.

#2 Art in the FOYER!

We have two locked display cases dedicated to AAD members in the entrance to the DDO civic center

1. Work can be in any medium and must be on paper and unframed.
2. You can submit several pieces depending on their size.
3. They can be sketches or even unfinished work.

NEXT LIBRARY EXHIBIT JAN 5TH – MAR 2ND

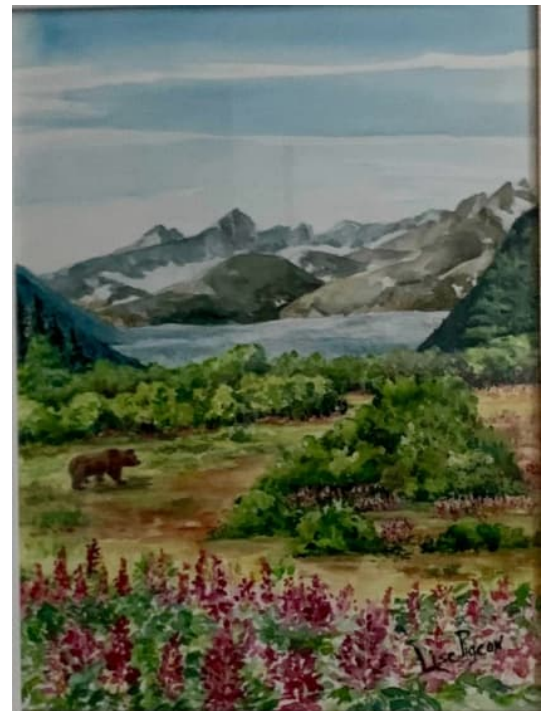

Lise Pigeon

I am a West Island watercolour artist who has always enjoyed all that nature has to offer particularly landscapes and animals in their habitats who share this earth with us. I enjoy being outside discovering and observing wildlife when I go on vacation, walk in the woods, garden or even when I am playing golf. I love to capture a special moment in time which I save on paper using the colours on my palette.

I hope you enjoy the moments I have tried to capture!

Message from the Webmaster

artddo.ca - Attention all members! If you have not updated your work in the gallery section of our website, please send in new images of recent work now. If there are no images under your name, we need some now. A blank box above your name does not convey the sense of your artistic practice!

Send a short bio and a few jpeg images to artddo.ca@gmail.com

New to artddo.ca: On the Exhibits page click on the poster for our permanent exhibit Celebration and you'll find a photo of participating artists. On the Archives page you will see posters and invitation cards from our past exhibitions.

STAY IN SHAPE..... 😊 WITHOUT MUCH EFFORT.... by Derek Wills

Some exercises that don't require physical effort . .

Beating around the bush...
Jumping to conclusions...
Climbing up the wall...
Swallowing your pride...
Passing the buck...
Throwing your weight around...
Dragging your heels...
Pushing your luck...
Making mountains out of molehills...
Hitting the nail on the head...
Wading through paperwork...
Bending over backwards...
Jumping on the bandwagon...
Balancing the books...
Running around in circles...
Eating crow...
Blowing your own horn...
Climbing the ladder of success...
Pulling out all the stops...
Adding fuel to the fire...
Opening a can of worms...
Putting your foot in your mouth...
Getting the ball rolling...
Going over the edge...
Picking up the pieces...

Whew! That is some workout! Now sit down and...
Exercise caution...

And above all, keep away from kicking the bucket! 😊

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR TIME – BY MARISKA SMEDING

This year my son and his family came to stay with us for a full week over the holidays. This has not happened for many years, so we decided to invite our whole family to reunite between Christmas and New Years. When our boys were small we were four rambunctious boys and us parents for quite a few years.

Our party was a wonderful gathering of all the “boys” and wife, girlfriends and extended family.

We also invited four men, friends of ours, who were alone around Christmas and New Year’s time. It ended up being a great party with lots of chatting, catching up and laughs. Our granddaughter of almost two years old was a charm, being the centre of joy for us all.

I made “oliebollen” a traditional Dutch Beigne for this time of year, which our boys are crazy about. It was a big hit!!

After it all calmed down a few days later I was able to finish a painting I had started with our weekly ladies’ group a few weeks prior. We get together once a week on Thursdays to paint and sketch and be social. Our gatherings are often in malls during winter and outdoors in summer.

My painting is a mixed media of collage, watercolours and gouache. It started with the middle piece, which I tore out of an art magazine. It inspired me to continue the theme and expand on it. I like the free-flow of the bodies, even the ones that I added. There is feeling of space in an undefined way, giving it lightness and a suggestion of connection between body, space and energy. There is more than the eye can see, we can only indicate and show the way...

HOW ARTISTS CAN USE THE SQUARE APP TO PROCESS PAYMENTS

Download & Set Up

- Download the Square Point of Sale app (free) on your phone or tablet.
- Create a Square account and link your bank account for deposits.

Accept Payments In-Person

- Use a Square Reader (connects via Bluetooth or headphone jack) to accept credit/debit cards, tap, or chip payments.
- Enter card details manually if the customer doesn't have their card physically.
- A reader is not required to process payments – clients can tap your phone, or if payment exceeds the tap limit, you can enter card details manually.

Accept Payments Online or Remotely

- Send invoices directly from the app or dashboard.
- Create a payment link or QR code for quick digital transactions.
- Set up a simple online store or booking page through Square Online.

Track Sales & Inventory

- Square logs each sale, tracks taxes, and provides detailed sales reports.
- You can Categorize items (e.g., paintings, prints, classes) for easier tracking.

Deposits & Fees

- Funds are typically deposited into your bank account within 1–2 business days.
- Square charges a small transaction fee (around 2.6% + 10¢ per tap/swipe/dip).
- No monthly fees or subscription plans—only fees to pay are upon transaction.

Additional Tools

- Option send receipts by text or email.
- Integrates with customer directories, marketing tools, and inventory management.
